The following statement was entered into the record for Supervisors Burke and Knabe:

“Congresswoman Juanita Millender-McDonald and the African-American Women Health and Education Foundation will hold their Ninth Annual Southern California Regional 5K AIDS Walk on Saturday, April 23, 2005 at California State University, Dominguez Hills in Carson, California. This annual event is planned to raise needed funds to benefit Los Angeles County clinics and programs that provide HIV prevention and care services to minorities, particularly women. HIV infection disproportionately affects minorities, particularly African-American and Latino families.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried (Supervisor Yaroslavsky being absent), the Board took the following actions:

1. Proclaimed April 23, 2005 as the “Ninth Annual Southern California Regional 5K AIDS Walk” throughout Los Angeles County;
2. Instructed the Chief Administrative Officer to provide the necessary support; and
3. Encouraged all County employees to voluntarily support and participate in this worthwhile event.
